

Insecure

Shane

Falling fast from the heights losing grasp of the time trying not to say what I want can't control myself, cross the line gotta hold me back crucified if I speak my mind I'll do what I want Don't you tell me you're not falling in love, falling in love Don't you tell me you're lost here in my arms, here in my arms Because my heart can't take it I'm insecure baby, I'm insecure fighting for love Yeah my heart can't take it I'm insecure baby, I'm insecure fighting for us Reconstruct, sanctify trust your gut, don't say goodbye
I am not someone you give up
I will love you endlessly
If you open up and let me show you I am not who I was
