all you need

Bartek Miarka

You have a right to live your life
Like no one else does, like no one else might.
If you have visions, come on and live them out.
All you need is some peace while you are here.
Just let go till you are home, dear.
I had a dream when I was young.
I dreamt our lives were going to be found
When we were always waiting to live.
All you need is some peace while you are here.
Just let go let it all, dear.

You have the choice to hear the noise
Or hear the sweet sound of your sweet voice.
I know I've heard it. I heard it in my sleep.
All you need is some peace while you are here.
Just let go. Don't say no, dear.
Wake up each night at the same time.
Pull up the blind and look outside
And in the orange light the fog is rising.
This is life. The still night. Peace in the quiet.
Happiness is the sky.
