When It's Over

Wild Belle

I won't cry about you now
I won't leave behind any clouds when it's over
I'm just a clown when it's over, oh wow oh wow
I caught you dancing at the hall
You were swinging to a romantic song like you loved him
You probably do, you're always falling,
That's how you, you like to move
He's no good for you,
I told you so, I told you so
He's no good for you,
But you don't know
I must be dumb (I must be dumb)
I never knew how much you were worth, baby (I never knew)
I'm all alone (I'm all alone)
And I never saw it coming (I never saw, I never saw, I never saw it coming)
His pocket's full,
Overflowing with dollar bills,

But baby, I can't stand still,
Even if you asked me to (Even if my darling asked me to)
I gotta tell you something
He's no good for you,
I told you so, I told you so
He's no good for you,
But you don't know
He's no good for you,
I told you so, I told you so
He's no good for you,
But you don't know
I won't cry about you now
I won't leave behind any clouds when it's over
You're all alone, when it's over, will you come home?
He's no good for you,
I told you so, I told you so,
He's no good for you,
But you don't know.
