For This One

Trembling Blue Stars

I got your letter
It put a stop
To my waiting
For you to call me upI can't go back
I can't return
To the world I knew
To a world that's gone
And you've let me know
I can't have who I want
So where to now
For this one
For this one?I got your letter
It put paid
To my getting
Carried away
I can't go back
I can't return
To before I fell
To a different world
And you've told me I
Can't have who I fell for
So where to now
For this one
For this one?I can't go back
I can't return
To when my heart
You did not own
And I can't have
The one who stole
So where to now
For this one
For this one
For this one?
