Chosen Race

Samael

Fall black shroud, veil of ignorance it is a new light we desire Fall gods of man, worn masks that our new empire may at last rise up Fight the fear of freedom, you cannot lose Fragile are the steps, sharp is the rise Courage! Our time has come Courage! The time is now
Souls of steel no-one owns us
Murderers of oppression
Chosen race...
..just choose to be chosen
Father!
Give us today what is needed give it all
Father!
Thy will be done on earth and in the skies
For ours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever...
