

The One That Kills the Least

Slipknot

I don't seem to care today
I mirror what I love
Win what I hate
Empty waste can cloud your eyes
I only know because I tried
So come with me
Come with me
Let's meet our contestants
There's no better time to play the game I don't want to give it away
Underneath I see the kill
Buried deep within guilty regrets
Bleeding in the dark, everything is wonderful
I don't care, I don't want to forget
When is it acquired? It's none of your business
I prefer to be an outlaw of my filth
Turn the other cheek, it's ever disappointing
You're refusing to forgive
When nothing was taken No one else survives
I've seen you live, now watch me die
But we don't see the writing on the wall
And as I close my eyes
I know the deal, I realize
The one that kills the least still kills us all Hidden in the rubble
Everybody's got a story to tell
What do I need? Eliminate the impossible
All that's left is a man and a veil
Maybe our mouth, maybe it's the station
There's no better way to go, no better way to be
I've got my demon, go get your own
Save another number, don't forget to hate me No one else survives
I've seen you live, now watch me die
But we will see the writing on the wall
And as I close my eyes
I know the deal, I realize
The one that kills the least still killed us all No one else survives
I've seen you live, now watch me die
But we don't see the writing on the wall
And as I close my eyes
I'm lost in here, I realize

That the one that kills the least still killed us all
The one that kills the least still kills us all
The one that kills the least still kills us all, all, all, all
