Anyway

Vixen

Pornography Well, I pretend I can't hang up the phone 'Cause if I do then he gets you And I'll be in this room alone Staring at the carpet Wondering how they made it And you would say I should not be afraid I'm better off alone and free 'Cause no one can put up with me And your mom don't like me either Now I don't have to meet her You and me We end up in catastrophe But I have got one more thing to add Okay, so I'm a jerk and I'm a weirdo And even if I'm lucky I'll amount to zero But I thought that you'd love me anyway I'm so not even worth it But baby, no one's perfect Yeah, I thought that you'd love me anyway Anyway You're not the type of girl who takes advice Still all that shit your parents said Still bouncing round inside your head "You two will never make it, if you build it, he will break it" You and me

They sum us up so poignantly
But I have got one more thing to add
Okay, so I'm a jerk and I'm a weirdo
And even if I'm lucky I'll amount to zero
But I thought that you'd love me anyway
I'm so not even worth it
But baby, no one's perfect
Yeah, I thought that you'd love me anyway
Anyway

Maybe you'll never play the guitar
And maybe you'll never sing in harmony with me
Maybe you can't rock the AC/DC
Well, hell still ain't a bad place to be if you're with me

Anyway
Okay, so I'm a jerk and I'm a weirdo
And even if I'm lucky I'll amount to zero
But I thought that you'd love me anyway
I'm so not even worth it
But baby, no one's perfect
Yeah, I thought that you'd love me anyway
Anyway
Anyway
And the end goes like this
