DFW

The Vaughan Brothers

I was at DFW
I had to call you
I had to say goodbye to my baby today
Remindin? me of the days abow
That I stepped foot at that false base
But boo, you a star
You always are
You are so full of grace
And we ain?t spoken for so so long
But I think about you every day
It?s been a hard livin?
?Cause you never know
When you?ll be lifted
Of the gift of livin?
I try to keep your head
Above the tears burnin? down my face
She came to me forever

But right now I?ve got to put her on that 727
And I, I promised it?d be different
But it makes me rely to this yea yea
If all we have is a story to pass
And a memory to embrace
Yet all of this
And I had to say goodbye to my baby today
I had to say bye bye to my baby
I had to say bye bye to my baby
Had to say bye bye to my baby
Goodbye goodbye goodbye to my baby today
I had to say goodbye goodbye goodbye to my baby today
I had to say goodbye goodbye goodbye to my baby today
I had to say goodbye goodbye goodbye to my baby today
I had to say goodbye goodbye goodbye to my baby today

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/