La Song (Demo)

Lewis Watson

I've been washed away
With everything I've ever known
Well, I loved you to your veins
So how come I'm alone?You're everything that I hoped for
So I gave you my all
You're everything that I prayed for
But you were stoleThe demons in your brain
They helped you build a wall
And while I watched you suffocate
I've never felt so torn
You're everything that I hoped for
So I gave you my all
You're everything that I prayed for
But you were stoleWhy did everything change?
Everything was ours
Everything was stolen and now everything is gone
Everything is gone, everything is gone
Everything is gone, everything is gone
Why did everything change?
Everything was ours
Everything was stolen and now everything is gone
Everything is gone, everything is gone
Everything is gone, everything is gone
Everything is
You're everything that I hoped for
So I gave you my all
You're everything that I prayed for
But you were stoleI've been washed away
With everything I've ever known
