

Second Star to the Left, Go Until Dawn

Copeland

All this time away from you
With you would be better
All those days of summer fun
Missed you more than ever I sit still till high school whether
But ponder still you know I never will stay silent
It was a big mistake to let me have my way
In the first place It was a big mistake to let me memorize your face
I'm jealous of you moon tonight
You get to see her alone beneath the stars
And everything I fear all my strength was tranquilized And everyday I get weaker but stronger
When I think of how we never sat silent
It was a big mistake to let me have my way
In the first place
It was a big mistake to let me memorize your face
