

Angelito Heart

Ely Guerra

You are that angel who took my heart.
Now I'm bleeding, messing up all over my house.

I am the girl that's holding a hole,
Emptiness is crying it makes me feel alone

If I drink a whiskey with my girlfriends,
My heart is not with me.

If I cook a meal for all my best friends,
My heart is not with me.

If I sing a song for mom and daddy,
My heart is not with me.

If I'm by myself thinking about it,
My heart is not with me.

I'm in my bedroom, I'm in my car
I am at the movies, now I'm in a bar
So beautiful angel, what can I do?
Nothing really matters I rather be with you.

If I drink a whiskey with my girlfriends,
My heart is not with me.

If I cook a meal for all my best friends,
My heart is not with me.

But if you decide to come around me
The wound may stop to bleed.

And if you enjoy my smile, my angel
You should stay with me.
