

Washington

DOGSTAR

I feel something near
Is it misery or fear
It's a mystery unclear
What am I doing here A breeze upon my face
Smells sweet as your embrace
A smile across my face
As I think about that place And I feel like I know
What's going on
Like roses reach to
Kiss the morning dawn
I'm Washington tonight
And all is calm
I'm coming home to you
We're moving on We rode upon a town
People all around
It's a good place to lay down
And I dream about you now
