

Horns Surrounding Me

Julia Holter

Few times do I feel the breeze
Of a cold night
So I recall the words of lovers sadly in the sun
Unending sunWe will run forever with the hot timpani bang, bang!

As the sounds recedes, bored lover falls asleep and disappearsHorns surrounding me sing so forcefully and high
Horns surrounding me sing so forcefully and highMoon, they forget how soft heart is, unfolding over time
Heart, don't forget how young we are, we wander softlyHorns surrounding me sing so forcefully and high
Horns surrounding me sing so forcefully and highMoon, they forget how soft heart is, unfolding over time
Heart, don't forget how young we are, we wander softlySeen through a window, my love blurred, mute, and slow
I offer roses to nothing
The answer absent
