Don't Lose Hope

3rd Storee

I can see you
Sitting there feeling like the world has passed you by
I can feel you
I feel you there thinking that your time is running outIt's been so long since somebody
Patted you on the back
But what do you need that for
Reach inside your heart and explore
There's nothing you can't do if you prayStay in the fight a little longer for better days
Never loose hope for tomorrow
Never loose sides of your ribbon in the skyNever forgot into sorrow
The rain will come but the sun must shine
(Keep hope alive)I can see you
Put the smile on you face because you came out on top
I can feel you
You used what you had and you now know it was alive
'Cause it feels so strong from behind the pastYou bounced your way back
It's what you are living for
Reach inside you heart and explore
There's nothing you can't do if you prayStay in the fight a little longer for better days
Never loose hope for tomorrow
Never loose side to the ribbon in the sky
Never forgot into sorrow
The rain will come but the sun must shine
(Keep hope alive)Follow you dreams, by any means it doesn't matter what it seems Hold on to you pride it is the fuel of you energy to your destiny
Never loose hope of what tomorrows bring
Never loose hope for tomorrowNever loose sides of your ribbon in the sky
Never forgot into sorrow
The rain will come but sun must shine
(Keep hope alive)I can see you
No matter what the world say, keep hope alive
I can feel you
No matter whats around you, keep hope alive
I can see you
