

Bring Me Down

Nonpoint

I'm gonna make it rain on you.
I'm gonna bring the pain to you.
Put you through a nightmare that you'll never wanna sleep again.
And when you open, you open your eyes I hope you've said your last goodbyes.
And all your hoping to see my demise
Is only causing me to rise You can try hard, hard as you can
You're never gonna bring me down
You're gonna fight but I'm gonna win
You're never gonna bring me down You really think you have a chance
Against the army in my head
Fighting like you took my children
And say I'll never see them again
You can't understand how serious
I take the way you look at me
My intention isn't to discuss this
It's to see if you can bleed
