No more conversation
I know who you are Let's take this no further or I may go so far as to keep you from leaving I would like to see you begging, barely breathing leaving on your knees (on your knees)Oh, the things that I'd do the things that I'd do
I'd do to you if only I could do all the things that I want to if only you... you knew all the things I'd do
the things that I'd do
if you knew what I'd do if I told you, you would keep me from youNo more false pretension You know who I am Let's end this flirtation You already have given me inspiration far more than I need to reclaim your lost smile searching on my kneesOh, the things that I'd do the things that I'd do
I'd do to you if only
if only you knew all the things I'd do
the things that I'd do
if you knew what I'd do if I told you, you would keep me from youYou won't feel again that gentle touch you hate so much so I must refrain, 'cause what I'd like you'd love too muchOh, the things that I'd do
the things that I'd do
I'd do to you if only
the thing that I'd do
if you knew what I'd do if I told you, you would keep me close to you
