

Snowdin Winter (feat. Chronos & Zephyr)

SharaX

You say I'm drifting
That I'm lost in thought
Just taking in the sights
And wondering that lies under snow
Not paying mind to time
No sense of rush
With every step it's a reminder of
Adventures unknown
I see you run ahead
And I don't mind
Sometimes it's better if I walk
This bridge alone, far behind
In case I stagger
Maybe pause too long
And then the beauty's gone
The birds are silenced, now
I know that you did
Just a bird, I say, go away
You can't live like this
You're a coward, a fool, pretender
Takes a moment perched
And then flies to another branch

You call this your home?
Snowdin's no place for murderers so-
Tell me now you
Plan to solve this
I could whisper
All that's honest
I should leave you
Out here, alone
Like the one
You left long ago

I know that you did
Just a bird, I say, go away
You can't live like this
You're a coward, a fool, pretender
Takes a moment perched

And then flies to another branch

You call this your home?
Snowdin's no place for murderers so-

I know that you did
Just a bird, I say, go away
You can't live like this
You're a coward, a fool, pretender
Takes a moment perched
And then flies to another branch

You call this your home?
Snowdin's no place for murderers so-

Someone's calling
Voices talking
Lost among the ice
It's falling
Then there's silence
No one saw this
Cry for help
And drown in whiteness
Can you keep a secret?
Try me
Cowardice and fear's
Behind me
Under blankets
And it haunts me
Taints me, breaks me

Someone's calling
Voices talking
Lost among the ice
It's falling
Then there's silence
No one saw this
Cry for help
And drown in whiteness
Can you keep a secret?
Try me
Cowardice and fear's
Behind me

Under blankets
And it haunts me
Taints me, breaks me

Someone's calling
Voices talking
Lost among the ice
It's falling
Then there's silence
No one saw this
Cry for help
And drown in whiteness
Can you keep a secret?
Try me
Cowardice and fear's
Behind me
Under blankets
And it haunts me
Taints me, breaks me

Someone's calling
Voices talking
Lost among the ice
It's -
Then there's silence
No one saw this
Cry for help
And drown in whiteness
Can you keep a secret?
Try me
Cowardice and fear's
Behind me
Under blankets
And it haunts me
Taints me, breaks me
