Love & Affection

Sweet Caroline

You'd think I was living in a magazine, just some stupid beauty queen.
I'm really your baby mama dream.Now that there's love and affection, we won't change our ways.
Now that there's love and affection, we won't change our ways.If every faded movie star, could put their images in a jar, then I'd store up and go that far.Now that there's love and affection,
we won't change our ways.
Now that there's love and affection, we won't change our ways.Sometimes the one you love the most,
gets lost
loses sight becomes a ghost.
When did our romance get this hard?Now that there's love and affection,
we won't change our ways.
Now that there's love and affection, we won't change our ways.now that now that
now that there's love and affection
we won't change our ways.
Now that there's love and affection,
we won't change our ways.
