

There Ain't Nothing Like a Song

Elvis Presley

When you say that's it boy
I'm finally beat
You're goin' ninety miles an hour
Down a dead end street You don't want to fight no more
You think that you can't win
Come on boy take a real deep breath
Jump right in and Hold your head up high
Oh, you gotta be strong, yeah
(You gotta be strong, you gotta be strong)
Come on and sing, sing, sing
There ain't nothing like a song Now they may take away your job
Take your fancy car
They may repossess your clothes
Take that fine guitar They may take everything you own
Well, that's just for today
As long as you've got a song in your heart
Tomorrow's gonna be okay Hold your head up high
Oh, you gotta be strong, yeah
(You gotta be strong, you gotta be strong)
Come on and sing, sing, sing
There ain't nothing like a song, all right There ain't nothing gonna stop you
Once you've set your mind
The only people gonna knock you
Are jealous of what they find Just keep a smile right on your face
Don't let 'em get you down
When you wake up tomorrow
The world is spinnin' round Hold your head up high, hey, hey, hey
You gotta be strong, all right
(You gotta be strong, you gotta be strong)
Come on and sing, sing, sing
There ain't nothing like a song Well, lovin's all that I can give you
Baby, that's enough
You ain't easy to satisfy
Baby, I ain't that tough Now hey, little girl
You're about the wildest thing I've ever seen
When I'm with you, baby
I'm a lovin' machine Come on and kiss me, honey
Oh, you gotta be strong, hey you gotta be strong
(You gotta be strong, you gotta be strong)

Come on and sing, sing
There ain't nothing like a song
Come on and sing, sing, sing
Sing, sing, sing, sing
There ain't nothing like a song
