Compass

Sierra Hull

I like to say to you
Come follow
But you may find, a heart's been hollowed out
Seems the water here is shallow, it's over my head
It's still I swallowedI've thrown away my compass
Done with the chart
I'm tired of spinning around
Looking for direction, northern star
I'm tired of spinning around
I'll just step out
Throw my doubt into the sea
For what's meant to be will be, will be
My skin is old I need to shed it
Cause there's more to me
I have to let it out
I may not know which way i'm headed
But i've got myself
I'm gonna to set itI've thrown away my compass
Done with the chart
I'm tired of spinning around
Looking for direction, northern star
I'm tired of spinning around
I'll just step out
Throw my doubt into the sea
For what's meant to be will be, will be
Da.da.daaa.daaa... dum
I've thrown away my compass
Done with the chart
I'm tired of spinning around
One direction
