

Gypsy Lullaby

The Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies

I didn't see you in my dream last night, sleep came all too easy
So as I woke alone, I knew I found sanctuary, in a cemetery
In my mind where I lay my thoughts of you to rest.

I raised my head and for the first time, my window was open the cool cool breezes flow in Outside the sun rise streamin in my mind
A provocative feel I know is real oooh, you're gone

Rain down sweet sunshine
Ridin on the breeze so high
Let your breeze and spirit flow high
Sing to me your Gypsy lullaby.

Dominion street never looked so sweet as it does today
Mrs Wilson, How are ya?, much obliged, I am a new man
Daffodils align her fence accompanied by, accompanied by a fresh green scent Gives me promise to what tomorrow, tomorrow will bring and it brings many things.

Lay down sweet sunshine
Ridin on your breeze so high
Let your breezes spirit flow high
Sing to me your Gypsy lullaby.

Lyrics Submitted by Bro Paul Brown

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>