

Tabula Rasa

A7ie

The kid next door is defective
The trees are rotting and bending to the ground
 Watch the untainted innocence
 Collapse into lewd misfortunes
And I swear but the truth feels so empty
And I run but there's darkness everywhere
 Paralyzed, you can't see
 Paranoid, you can't sleep
 Through the lies that surround you
 Paranoid, what you can't see
 Paralyzed, is your disease
 Hypnotized, is all around you
 I'm at least half a mile away
But much further than I ever thought I'd be
 To finding my way out of this hole
 But the darkness here is so soothing
And I swear but the truth gets me nowhere
And I run but there's temptations everywhere
 Paranoid, you can't sleep
 Paralyzed, you can't see
 Through the lies, that surround you

 Paranoid and you can't see
 Paralyzed but your disease
Hypnotized was everything about you
 Substance seals leaks in you
 Damaged ship, so we sink
 Right before my eyes
But it's putting out the fire well
 Carnage lights
Up the sky but it's just as well
 No one's fine
 Sinking into darkness
 It's no surprise
 Paralyzed, you can't see
 Paranoid, you can't sleep
Through the lies that surround you
 Paranoid, what you can't see
 Paralyzed, is your disease

Hypnotized is everything, was everything about you
But you can't taste it
'Cause you'll just waste it
