Three in a Room

Sonny James

Three in a room three in a room
You and me and your friend on the phone
The telephone rings just one of those things
You answer like it's just a friend
But I know different it's him again
We both know so why pretendThree in a room three in a room
When I thought that he were alone
Three in a room three in a room
You and me and your friend on the phoneI sit here and listen my heart breaks inside
To know that you do this to me
You're laughing talking he answers your gift
Do you think I'm too blind to see?Three in a room three in a room
When I thought that he were alone
Three in a room three in a room
You and me and your friend on the phone
You and me and your friend on the phone
