

The Golden King

The Psychedelic Ensemble

One dark night beyond the mountain chain
The charge of steeds echoed through the plain
Our knights at the castle gate
For what comes our way did wait At daybreak 10,000 Henchmen came
Our Kingdom they seized and set aflame
Our knights sent to their graves
Each man, woman, child enslaved Will the power of the Golden King
Rise again, rise again? Hear our plea, great King
Rise from the night Will the Golden King arise? Hear our plea, great King
Rise from the night Will the Golden King arise? At daybreak 10,000 Henchmen came
Our Kingdom they seized and set aflame
Our knights sent to their graves
Each man, woman, child enslaved Will the power of the Golden King
Rise again, rise again?
Rise!
