Runs in the Family

Lagwagon

Used to recognize the gun in your hand
Promise, squandered
Used to understand the stake in your heart
Mileage, road worthBut it's hard to recognize the massive burden
Born of love and bad deeds
And it runs in the family from beginning to end It is just revengeEverybody build a monument to pain
Flowers, fast cars
Everybody raise the thief in their heart
It's just a beatingAnd it sounds just like a million other tributes
Customs and demons
And it runs in the family with a million regrets
It's just (It's just revenge) revengeEverybody build a monument to fear
Unsafe people
Everybody raise a paranoid child
It's just an over-stimulated mindAnd it sounds just like a billion people starving with no resource for love
And it runs in the family with a million missteps
It's just revengeEverything echoes
Everyone emulates
Everyone is a victim of their blood
Everyday initiate
Everything echoes
Everyone echoes
All of us are running with the wolvesAll of us are running out of life
