Spiderbait

Singing is easy if you can remember the tune
It can be something to do on a bright afternoon
Singing in sunshine ... sweet melody
I'm singing for you and I hope that you're singing for meJust try to remember
Words go together
Songs last forever
Nothing can ...
For youYou can be happy when everyone's singing your song
And think of the cash you can make when they all sing along
It doesn't matter if all of your songs sound the same
Cos people are happy to hear them over and over and over againJust try to remember
Words go together
Songs last forever
Nothing can be together
For you
