

Tricky to Love (demo)

White Lies

My love
Changes with the weather
And my heart
Red imitation leather I'd give the world
But the world is never enough
For a girl
With it all
I guess
I'm just tricky to love And it could be tricky to love My love
A rush of every season
But vague
As time
A dedicated reason I'd give the world
But the world is never enough
For a girl
With it all
I guess
I'm just tricky to love I said all the right things
In all the right times
You never hear me out
I played all of your games
In all of my life
I feel so tricky to love And it could be tricky to love [x2] I said all the right things
In all the right times
You never hear me out
I played all of your games
In all of my life
I feel so tricky to love [x2] And it could be tricky to love [x4]
