Haywood Heartache

Brother Hawk

Brother, I'm lettin 'er go.
The heartache's more than I can tote.
She's treatin' me like shit tonight.
All we ever do is fight,
so now I'm burnin' up the road.
I been takin' all her pain and
I'm about to draw the line.
She's been waistin' her love on strangers,
and I know love is hard to find.
Brother, I've had enough.
And I know losin' her's gonna be tough,
but it's more than I can take,
she's breakin' my heart every day.
We got more hate than we do love.
