At Least (little Things)

Kelly Price

I'm on my way back to Atlanta
About to start a new life 'cause I can't take it here
It seems like the more we fight the more the pressure
I'm in this lonely house sitting high up on a hillPressin' the buttons on the control
Flipping through channels on TV
Wondering when you're coming home
And take care of familyAt least you can call and say I'm busy
At least you can say I'm running late
At least you can give some kind of notice
Let somebody know that you're okayAt least you can take some time to phone
At least you can just one day stay home
At least you can take me out to eat
If you love me, you would've done those thingsYou won't miss me till I'm gone
Impossible to drink from a well that's gone dry, yeah
And every night you come in singing the same old song
How could you do me wrong when you know it ain't right, babyPressin' the buttons on the control
Flipping through channels on TV
Wondering when you're coming home
And take care of familyAt least you can call and say I'm busy
At least you can say I'm running late
At least you can give some kind of notice
Let somebody know that you're okayAt least you can take some time to phone
At least you can just one day stay home
At least you can take me out to eat
If you love me, you would've done those thingsTake in a movie show, a carnival, a place to go, we can be alone
But instead I'm staring at these matching walls
The weekends spent, a compliment, flowers sent would've kept me at home
But now instead I'm packing my bags and I'm gone, yeahAt least you can call and say I'm busy
At least you can say I'm running late
At least you can give some kind of notice
Let somebody know that you're okayAt least you can take some time to phone
At least you can just one day stay home
At least you can take me out to eat
If you love me, you would've done those thingsAt least you can call and say I'm busy
At least you can say I'm running late
At least you can give some kind of notice
Let somebody know that you're okayAt least you can take some time to phone
At least you can just one day stay home
At least you can take me out to eat

If you love me, you would've done those thingsAll I wanted was a smile
For you to stay a little while
It's too late for it
'Cause you forgot the little thingsAt least you can take some time to phone
At least you can just one day stay home
At least you can take me out to eat
If you love me, you would've done those thingsAt least you can call and say I'm busy
At least you can say I'm running late
At least you can give some kind of notice
Let somebody know that you're okayAt least you can take some time to phone
At least you can just one day stay home
At least you can take me out to eat
If you love me, you would've done those things
