Rush

Project Pitchfork

Lying on the floor,
looking to you,
I'm so bored - so bored,
what if you didn't,
loved me,
like I loved you,
your smooth grace,
pleased me,
I gave you,
everything I could,
it wasn't enough for you,
you lied to me,
so I had to do,
something against,
my pain,
you lie there like,
a flower in the snow,
do something against my pain,
you senseless, careless, nothing, I'm lying by your side,
as you're getting colder,
the good times,
the bad times we had,
now fade away,
you lied to me,
so I had to do,
something against,
my pain,
you lie there like,
a flower in the snow,
do something against my pain.
