Ocean Size

Goldfinger

Yeah ah, yeah oh
Yeah ah, yeah oh
I never wanted
I never needed anything but you
Or any dreams come true
I never wished for
I never asked for all your little games
Or all your guilted shame
Now you're acting like you just don't care
Like you could find this one anywhere
(It isn't fair)
(My life is an open book)
My feelings and my meanings are ocean sized
Long before I ever met you
Yeah, my feelings and my meanings are ocean sized
Long before I ever met you
So now I'm asking to what had happened
To all the words you said
Well now you want me dead
If you were made for
The thing you stayed for
All that time ago
(All this dying show)
Now you're acting like you lost a friend
Like we were only pretend

Is this the end?
'Cause my life is an open book
My feelings and my meanings are ocean sized
Long before I ever met you
Yeah, my feelings and my meanings are ocean sized
Long before I ever met you
(Long before I ever met you)
Long before I ever met you
I wanted to take back my life
'Cause I gave it all to you
(Gave it all to you)
I just wanna make it right
So I'm waiting on you

(Waiting on you)
Yeah I'm waiting on you
My feelings and my meanings are ocean sized
Long before I ever met you
Yeah, my feelings and my meanings are ocean sized
(Oceansized)
Long before I ever met you
My feelings and my meanings are ocean sized
Long before I ever met you
Long before I ever met you
(Long before I ever met you)
