Shane Nicholson

I'll move it out into the light
I just can't leave it alone
I'm somewhere in America
And you're asleep at home Take it out over the edge
Watch it sinking like a stone
There's snow on the ground in Canada
And you're asleep at home I'm only a spark in the fire
I'm only a voice on the air
I'm wide awake in Hollywood
But I could be anywhere I'll move it out into the light
I just can't leave this thing alone
I'm somewhere in America
And you're asleep at home
