

Pop Loser

Velocity Girl

last night i walked into your room by mistake wanted to kiss you but you were awake guess i've given in to my own sweet tooth i'd like to spend the day on the roof i wrote a song in my car last night i almost finished but i saw the green light i'll play my la-la shit for you anytime la la la la la all along I guess I had the same thought wanted to show you all the records I bought waited at the bus stop and i stared in disgust but then i realised you don't ride same bus finished my song on the subway last night i missed my stop but i got it just right
la la la la la
