Shed the Skin

Onesidezero

Swallow, your eyes
Circle the tired, survive
Sharing the light we have lostYou might believe that it was so wrong
Forcing us down into
Another belief to carry us home
Forcing us down into
You wrote the words that we said so wrongSwallow your rites
Sample the sweetness, your life
Show me what it means to be freeYou might believe that it was so wrong
Forcing us down into
Another belief to carry us home
Forcing us down into
You wrote the words that we said so wrongI feel like I've shed my skin
We've done it this time, we've lost all self-control
Follow us this time, I wish I could
Imprisoned this time
When will the truth be told
Follow us this time, I wish I couldYou might believe that it was so wrong
Forcing us down into
Another belief to carry us home
Forcing us down into
You wrote the words that we said so wrong
Forcing us down into
Another disease that's killing us all
So wrong, we're so wrong
I feel like I've shed my skin
