

Back When I Was Brilliant

Future of the Left

i'm in hamburg for a week do you know a nice thai place? i have a birthday while i'm there call an undertaker i'm a prisoner of fun completely especially anatomically blown-up for the lesser mortals for the listener's boredom at the speed of sound i'm in germany all year do you know a dead shopkeeper? a new immigrant i think call the undertakers at the speed of sound i can promise the best selection of curry houses within a 25km radius the postman flew the longest distance is the answer to any trivia question - merry christmas! while promising not a thing just move your head in time with the wind like that's a bad thing i can verify that your purchase is important to us our company and our values policy is not a comment but in your case i will make an exception
