

Hallelujah

Deep Purple

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

HallelujahI am a preacher with a message for my people

Over the world, scratching on the ground

Looking for the peace that nobody has foundI am a spokesman for a better way of living

Love is the word and it can be heard

If you are young the message can be sung

Let me hear you singHallelujah

Hallelujah

HallelujahOh, tell it to the man who's power is the sermon on the wall

Tell it to the man, it's you who says you can misjudge them all

Tell it till it can be heard above the wailing of the crowd

Tell it on the field of war and hope you'll soon be justifiedThere is a better way of life and it's not so hard to find

If you live and let the people in your world speak its mindI am the pupil who sells his life for freedom

All over the world and it can be heard

If you are young the message can be sungHallelujah

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Lyrics provided by

<https://damlyrics.com/>