Free Booze

Semi Precious Weapons

Where she goes, she don't care
And she calls home everywhere
'Cause in her head
Everything's a dreamInside out she'll turn your love
Until she has loved enough
'Cause in her head
Everything's a dreamShe wants free booze
No rules and you (x2)She gets away with everything
Even when your heart's breaking
'Cause in your head
You're living in her dreamYou love her more, the less she cares
And now your home is everywhere
'Cause in your head
You're living in her dreamShe wants free booze
No rules and you (x2)
She wants heart break
Mistakes and loveShe wants free booze
No rules and youDon't you go, don't you go
Don't you goWe don't know where she sleeps
But we know it's happening
'Cause everyone is living in her dreamShe wants free booze
No rules and you (x2)
She wants heart break
Mistakes and loveShe wants free booze
No rules and you
