The Dollar Canon

I'm not allowed to feel so blue,
You're not allowed to feel so blue
You admit you always have been a monster
You're hesitating, never even once kissed
The ground, although you wanted to
And feel right if we could

Decorated by moonlight, a lovely assistant
For understanding substance and for Finding any animal
You're an animal too

Not allowed to feel so blue
You're not allowed to feel so blue
You're not allowed to feel so blue
Not allowed to

I've changed my mind again
I'm changing
I've changed my mind again
