

Thankful

Celine Dion

Circle around like butterflies
Escape from pouring rain
Running to the alleyways
Steal their little kiss again You're my only weakness
But somehow you made me strong
After chasing ghosts and fairytales
I'm right where I belong And I don't know where I've been looking
And I don't care where you have been before But I'm thankful to be here
Thankful to feel free
Thankful my prayers have been answered
I'm thankful you listened
Thankful to heaven
Thankful for feeling alive again
Thankful that hearts always mend Write it all on paper dolls
Let them play their little games
Of who loves who and what is true
No one ever takes the blame I see you through the window
And it takes my breath away
But I lose the floor beneath me
And all that's left to say As I don't know where I was going
And I don't care where we have been before But I'm thankful to be here
Thankful to feel free
Thankful my prayers have been answered
I'm thankful you listened
Thankful to heaven
Thankful for feeling alive again
Thankful that hearts always mend And I caught rainbows
Falling down
When I start spinning
Round and around and around But I'm thankful to be here
Thankful to feel free
Thankful my prayers have been answered
I'm thankful you listened
Thankful to heaven
Thankful for feeling alive again
Thankful my heart always mend Thankful my heart always mends
