

The Usual Suspect

Sven Hammond Soul

Black seed growing roots of doubt Question mark army is running thru River of suspicion overflowing my conviction I'm not sure as to who you are who you are
 who you are
 I don't know who you are
Who is this girl, who stole my heart
 So I chase down
 the usual suspect
 I'll be chasing down
 the usual suspect
I'll be running, running, running down the avenue
 Tryna catch up with the girl that I knew I'll be chasing down
 the usual suspect
 Poisonous devotion at the bottom of the cup
 I drink that liquor just to get fucked up My memory got lost in translations Are you the same girl, or am I mistaken who you are
 Who is this girl, who stole my heart
 So I chase down
 the usual suspect
 Said I'll be chasing down
 the usual suspect
I'll be running, running, running down the avenue
 I'm tryna catch up with the girl that I knew I'll be chasing down
 the usual suspect
 I don't know who you are Cause you done changed Everytime I see your face it looks so familiar still, and all it ain't the same Tell me who you are I wanna know who you are Now tell me who you are
 who you are
 Who is this girl, who stole my heart

Hey I'll be chasing down

the usual suspect

Hey I'll be chasing down

the usual suspect

I'll be running, running, running down the avenue

Hey I'll be chasing, chasing, chasing, chasing down

the usual suspect
