Mother Dear

Tindersticks

Something's on my mind
Mother dear, the boy keeps me crying
Don't know which way to turn
Keeps me so confused, keeps me so confused
Mother dear, 'cause for him I yearn
But he treats your daughter bad, keeps your daughter sad
I wish I didn't love him so, 'cause now I can't let him go
Each kiss gets a little sweeter, ooh, my heart gets a little weaker
I'm falling deeper, deeper in love each day
He's no good for me, but I can't break away
Ooh, each day love gets a little stronger
Ooh, heartaches lasts a little longer
Help, help me mother dear
Help, help me mother dear
All my love to him I give it, without him around, I couldn't live
I need him so and he knows it, can't let him go and I show it
Many times I've tried, telling him we're through
But when he takes me in his arms, there's nothing I can do
Oh, it's no use, I can't break loose
I keep loving him more and more and more each passing day
Help, help me mother dear, I'm so in love with him
But he treats your daughter bad, he keeps your daughter sad
I'm calling mother dear, I'm fallin' in love with him
But he treats your daughter bad, he keeps your daughter sad
Help me mother dear, I'm calling, help me, mother dear
But he treats your daughter bad, he keeps your daughter sad
I'm calling mother dear, I'm fallin' in love with him
But he treats your daughter bad
