

Pleasures in Your presence

Fountain of Praise (with Wale Adenuga & David Baro)

On The mountain in the valley Lord
There's no place I'll rather be than where You are Though the oceans row and the fire burnt
Lord I will not be shaken from Your ways

Speaking peace to my heart when I saw the raging whirl gladness flow to my soul Knowing You Are by my side
There's no measure and no measure
There's no measure to the pleasure in Your presence

On the mountain in the valley Lord
TheRe's no place I'll rather be than were You are Though the oceans row and the fire burnt Lord I will not be shaken from Your ways

CHORUS: speaking peace to my heart when I saw the Raging whirl gladness flow to my soul knowing You are by my side

There's no measure and no measure
There's no measure to the pleasure in Your presence

Lord I know You've been I will be Your Cos I know You are surrounding to the winds I here You whispering peace peace be still

Speaking peace to my heart when the storm is raging whirl gladness flows through my soul knowing You are by my side

There's no measure and no measure
There's no measure to the pleasure in Your presence

There's no measure and no measure
There's no measure in the pleasure of Your presence 3x
