

World of Liars

The Apartments

We lived above the railroads and
We watched the lightning trains
Through the early dark
With just enough to pay the rent
Kept thinking one day going to make it
Oh, we never did make it
We never did make it
What's left of us at the end of the ride
Photos, letters and lies
If no one is true, not even me and you
We're in a world of liars
If no one is true, not even me and you
We're in a world of liars
It's a world of liars
A smoky room, a jukebox plays
Killing me with kindness
I fell for that, I always do
I can feel myself going under
That's how it gets lately
That's how it feels lately
What happened of the life that we knew
Whatever happened to us
No one is true, not even me or you
We're in a world of liars
'Cause no one is true, not even me or you
We're in a world of liars
It's a world of liars
My heart and yours were always at each other's strokes
It proves how much we care
And didn't we care
And didn't we care
And didn't we care
In a world of liars
Waterfront and the warm bus
I know these places backwards
If melancholy takes your hand
You away [?]
Once in a while maybe
Once in a while maybe
What happened of the life we knew
Whatever happened to us
If no one is true, not even me or you
We're in a world of liars

If no one is true, not even me or you
We're in a world of liars You and me, me and you
What happened to
You and me and me and you
What happened to
Well, it's not our world anymore
It's not our world anymore
It's not our world anymore
It's not ours

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>