Guilty Pleasure

Ke$ha

I can't begin to think of
One person that I have loved
Anymore than I love youSo now we come to together
To share this love forever
I love you not to treasure
You should hold on to(I miss you)
I miss you everyday
I live without you
(Without you)(I see through)
I see through all the shame
Of guilty pleasure
I just want youIt breaks my heart away each day
To know your love so far away
What I need is to be with youI see while we're together
To share this love forever
I love you not to treasure
You should hold on to(I miss you)
I miss you everyday
I live without you
(Without you)(I see through)
I see through all the shame
Of guilty pleasure
I just want youDon't be scared to love with all your heart
And show the world just who you are
Now that I love you, so let's come together
And heal this world forever
