Wattsville Blues

Manic Street Preachers

I got the wattsville blues
I got nothing to lose now baby
I got the wattsville blues
I got nothing to lose now babyTime is going on
Time is leaving me
I got the wattsville blues
I got the wattsville blues now babyBut I still love the smile on your face
But I still love the sense of this place
I'm so happy I know I can never leave
Even though my, my brain it fucking bleedsI got the wattsville blues
I got nothing to lose now baby
I got the wattsville blues
I got nothing to loseTime is going on
And time is killing me
I got the wattsville blues
I got the wattsville blues now babyBut I still love the smile on your face
But I still love the everything about this place
I'm so happy I know I can never leave
There's a part of me that will never leaveBut I still love
But I still loveBut I still love the smile on your face
But I still love the everything about this place
I'm so happy I know I can never leave
Even though my, my brain it fucking bleedsI got the wattsville blues
I got nothing to lose now baby
I got the wattsville blues now baby
Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
Wattsville blues
Wattsville bluesDon't want no friends
Don't want no friends
Don't want no
Don't want no
Don't want no friends
Don't want useless fuckers knocking at my door
Poxy fucking assholes following me
Don't you understand that I fucking despise
Every single living organism?I'm dead
