Maybe

Lauren Sanderson

i let my guard down, what the fuck was i thinkin, yea. you really broke my walls down, what the fuck were you drinkin. oh.
and i don't need no excuses. no i won't believe them. i thought i had the perfect girl, i thought you were my world, oh my word, i must've been dreaming.

cause for the first time in love i really let it take me. yeah. and i gave you all the trust i thought that we'd discussed and all you did was break me. (ohh and i.) but i cannot fall victim to pain i won't let it make me. girl you got me fucked up i thought this was love, and fuck, is all that i'm saying.

and maybe, this meant more to me than youuu. and i've been thinkin maybeee, nothin you said to me was truue. and lately, i've been thinkin bout it too. i know it sounds crazy. i hate that i been missin you.

maybe i don't need another girl, i just need somewhere to kick it on the weekends. or maybe i need some alone time to disguise what i'm really feelin yeaah. and girl who knew that you'd leave me no reason. because the last time i said it's the last time all you did was leave me with your demons and for the first time in love i really let it take me. where does love goooo when the trust dies? oh tell me girl i'm waiting, yeah. is there a way out? is there a way now? is there no escaping? cause it's finally time to create my own closure so here's go creating yeah.

and maybe, this meant more to me than youuu. and i've been thinkin maybeee, nothin you said to me was truue. and lately, i've been thinkin bout it too. i know it sounds crazy. i hate that i been missin you.
