

Phantom Limb

Alice in Chains

No hope of rescue
I'm trapped here alone
If I don't dig my own way out, I'll die here Gave my loyalty too soon
Now the forked-tongue piper's bill is due Weather is shifting
So cold, going numb
Through a pinhole of light, I see vultures circling Bottom feeders pick my skin
Weathered brain a parasite within Ego pulverized
No better medicine
Angels have been advised
Don't want no requiem I'll just haunt you like a phantom limb
I'll just haunt you like a phantom limb
Gonna wear you like a second skin
I'll haunt you like a phantom limb Every new second
Getting harder to breathe
No matter which side I end up on, this ain't over My regrets are many, true
Still so much worse lies ahead for you Ego pulverized
No better medicine
Angels have been advised
Don't want no requiem I'll just haunt you like a phantom limb
I'll just haunt you like a phantom limb
Gonna wear you like a second skin
I'll haunt you like a phantom limb
