

Do You Remember

Jarryd James

When did we lose our way?
Is it when I've been gone?
So many content than anybody
Harder to let you go
Call me when you made up your mind but you won
Caught up in a way that you paint my heart
Only love could ever hurt this hard

Oh, don't be scared about it
Do you forgive my spill?
Do you remember the way it did you feel?
Do you remember the things that let you feel?

How do I make you stay?
When it's easier to let you go,
Nobody knows what we know about it
No one needs to know
Call me when you made up your mind but you wont
Caught up in a way that you paint my heart
Only love could ever hurt this hard

When your life's to your limit
You gave all your killing
Who you're gonna pray to when you're there?
When you find out that there ain't no other love
No other love for you
