

Around my World in 80 Days

Fury In The Slaughterhouse

And now we've finally
Reached the point
And you want to get in
I guess, that I should tell you
That there's just one thing Just a little journey
I have to send you on
Just to figure out
Where I'm coming from
And where you do belong Around my world in 80 days
Maybe, more if it pays
Around my love, my evil ways
Around my head in 80 days Discover dungeons of despair
That is what you have to share
If you walk this way with me
But our love will make us free Might be that you'll like it
Could be that you're shocked
But don't hesitate to open doors
That seem locked Maybe, you'll find fear
Maybe, you'll see clear
Maybe, you'll find an open heart
So sincere that wants you to be near Around my world in 80 days
