The Reason Why

The Byrds

Where am I? sleeping at the console
I dreamt something, that I don't remember
Checking in, just like any other
Signing off, signing out forever
You're secondhand
That's the reason why you're easy to drive
You understand
That's the reason why you're easy to hide
My head says yes but I was sedated
Signing off, checking in together
You're secondhand
That's the reason why you're easy to drive
You understand
That's the reason why you're easy to hide
You joined a band
That's the reason why you're easy to try
You understand
That's the reason why you're easy to hide
